

Compost it.

Why?

When compostable materials end up in landfills, they generate methane, a powerful greenhouse gas. Napa's local compost facility instead turns this valuable material into organic compost! When compost is used in agriculture and landscaping it builds soil nutrients, conserves water, and reduces the need for fertilizers.